

FRESHCARE COURSE

Wednesday 22nd February 2012

The course number for FarmReady is FRTC00658

To the Grower.

A Freshcare course has been organised for Wednesday the 22nd February at the AMS conference room, Suite 1,113 Dawson St, Lismore and will be delivered by Peter Newley, District Horticulturist with NSW DPI.

Course costs are $550.00 and is payable on the day by either cash or cheque made out to NSW Dept Primary Industries. This cost covers your attendance and course materials including the Freshcare manual and disc.

This course is registered under the Farmready program, run by the federal Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry, which means you can be reimbursed 65% of the course fee, provided you register with Farmready at least a week before the course, and pay on the day of the course.

To register with FarmReady please visit their website www.farmready.gov.au or phone 1800 087 670.

The application for Farmready requires the following information:

- Course name: Freshcare food safety and quality.
- Course number: FRTC00658

Numbers are limited so you must book. Please contact Sarah Jane Hall in the AMS office (02) 6622 4933.

Please arrive at the AMS office by 9am for a 9.15am start. The course is expected to finish at approximately 3.00pm. Lunch will be provided.

An application to join Freshcare will be necessary on the day, and once you have attended the training your details will be entered into the Freshcare database.

Implementation of the system must be in place on your farm before you make arrangements for an auditor to visit your farm to complete the certification process.

For further information, please contact Sarah Jane Hall at the AMS (02) 6622 4933.
